School profile

Swan Hill North Primary School is just three and a half hours north-west of Melbourne and five and a half hours from Adelaide, the Swan Hill region is renowned for its Murray River location, fresh local produce, epic landscapes, Australian native wildlife and Aboriginal heritage. The region runs alongside the majestic Murray river for nearly 200 kilometres and features changing landscapes, thriving farms, and historic townships. The original custodians of the lands are the Latji Latji, Wemba Wemba, Barapa Barapa and the Wadi Wadi Nations.

At Swan Hill North Primary School, students, teachers and parents work together to support all students in building the knowledge and skills needed to achieve personal success and reach their academic and social potential.

The school values at a staff and student level are: the 3 R's - Respect, Resilience & Responsibility. Swan Hill North Primary School embrace the seven DET Values in our work: Responsiveness, Integrity, Impartiality, Accountability, Respect, Leadership and Human Rights. The School's Cultural Agreement Plan identifies norms and protocols which detail how staff work together, how they teach and how they maintain high expectations of professional behaviour.

Swan Hill North Primary School has a dual focus on Personal and Academic development. Wellbeing is underpinned by School Wide Positive Behaviour framework which incorporates the school's values of 'Respect', 'Resilience' and 'Responsibility' as well as Respectful Relationships. The academic focus of the school is based on what the best available research tells us, much of this is now encompassed in the HITS (High Impact Teaching Strategies).

Swan Hill North Primary School has a commitment to their community and families to provide the most 'effective' teaching and learning practices in classrooms, based on research and evidence. The school aims to have outstanding, evidenced based programs that will support improved learning and wellbeing outcomes.
